Vic Kingston Will Head Fathers' March of Dimes

Victor Kingston, 30 Daryl Drive has accepted the chairmanship for the Orinda March of Dimes, and is completing plans for the Annual Fathers March which will be held on the evening of February 3.

Kingston is well known in the area, having served as chairman of the Orinda Civic Affairs Committee and also as president of the Commuters Association in 1958. At present he is vice president of the Orinda Association and serves on the committee of Scout Troop 237. He is an engineer for Bechtel Corp. of San Francisco.

Captains who will assist Kingston in their areas are William Brobeck, Stan Hunn, James Dana, Frank Liebold, George Cooke, Mervyn Peacock, George Smith, O. P. Pearson, Charles Craig, Douglas Gilkey.

James Gordon, Lloyd McDonald, George Driscoll, Dave Saenger, Glenn Taylor, Wm. Lincoln, George Duke, Frank Jones, Jack Canham, Raney Reid, Al Medina.

"Although there were only 18 new cases in Contra Costa County in 1958," said Mr. Kingston, "the local chapter of the national foundation authorized treatment for nearly 400 patients. These were carry-overs from other years, many of them children, whose treatment will need to be continued for perhaps many years. At any rate," added Kingston, "with expenditures running at $11,500 per month. In this county and our own chapter having to receive financial help from the national headquarters each year, it is hoped that Orinda residents will, as in the past, respond generously."

Following the door-to-door campaign, residents are invited to the Orinda Grammar School for the totaling of the funds by officers of the American Trust.

Deputy Constables Don Bradley and Norman Kets-dever will be present to transport the donations to the bank.

Coffee and cake will be served by Santa Maria Catholic Women's Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joan Haines.

Anyone wishing to help with the March on Feb. 3 should call Mr. Kingston at CL 4-3392.

Supervisors Delay Pine Grove Rezoning

Proposed rezoning of the Orinda Pine Grove area will be delayed pending adoption of the County Planning Commissions Master Plan for Orinda, Contra Costa County Supervisors have decided.

The board rejected by a vote of 5-0 the application of Associated Investment Co. of Oakland for rezoning to permit construction of apartment units on the 10 acre site.

The grove was zoned for administrative office building use in conjunction with a later abandoned plan for a central office for the Pacific Intermountain Express Co.

Herbert Hastings represented the applicant before the supervisors. He told the board that his firm planned 200 to 150 luxury apartments, many to have swimming pools.

He compared the projected three to four million dollar plan to Palm Springs apartment developments.

A Community Project Deserving of Commendation

AN EDITORIAL

It's amazing what community effort will do!

A good idea, some generous people, some hard workers and a big dash of cooperation, and you get the kind of results Orinda witnessed when "Tree Day" was held recently.

Hundreds of Orindans were involved, from the inception of the idea through the planting of the last seedling, and it can be said, in truth, that it was a real community effort.

IT WOULD BE impossible to name everybody who participated—and if you were there, you know that there were hundreds of happy Orindans planting trees and beautifying the community.

But credit must certainly go to the Boy Scouts, who built planter boxes, and to the merchants who contributed several hundred dollars to the project.

The Orinda Garden Club was a motivating force in the project, but none of it would have reached fruition had it not been for the willing Orinda residents—all of you—who gave your time and abilities.

SO WE CAN ALL point with real pride to our community as a place where people work together for the benefit of all.

And the nicest part—this is a lasting project. Future generations of residents, although they may not be aware of the individuals responsible, will reap the benefits.

But the honest pride belongs to the people of Orinda here and now.

We say, Congratulations!

Gill's Proposal For Resignation Refused By Board

Commissioners of the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District refused to accept the resignation of Fire Chief and Commissioner Gerould L. Gill Monday night at the Moraga Station of the district.

Gill, who has been with the district since its inception in 1946, stated that criticism made concerning his position with the fire district and his operation of Marsh Creek Lodge is unfounded.

THE SUN disclosed two weeks ago that the emergency fire number of the district and Gill's Marsh Creek Lodge are the same.

Classified advertising listings of the lodge appearing in the telephone directory are being paid by the East Contra Costa Fire Photection District and have been paid over the past five years, according to Howard McNamer, County Auditor.

Gill informed The Sun that he has ordered the telephone company to stop his classified listings in the directory.

GILL POINTED out at the meeting that he has offered his services, both as commissioner and chief for the past 13 years free of charge and that the commission had sanctioned his actions.

District commissioners, following Gill's statement, each praised him for his operation of the district.

District directors are Howard Wiedemann of San Ramon, Harry Rohrer, Moraga; Lee Higgins and Frank Arrata, Antioch.

THE EAST Contra Costa Fire Protection District includes all of the Moraga, Canyon and San Ramon areas and borders the Mt. Diablo, Lafayette, Orinda and Central Fire Protection Districts. It is the largest fire district in the county and extends to Antioch, Brentwood and Byron.

In other action, the commissioners decided to hire an accountant to audit the district's books and set a regular meeting night.

New Board Members Assume Duties For Year

The first official act performed by the new Board of Directors of the Orinda Association was to authorize the group's continued membership in the Contra Costa Taxpayers' Association.

The Association officers, who assumed their new duties at last Monday night's meeting at the Orinda school are Don Anderson, president; Harry Booth, treasurer; Mrs. Connie Hall, secretary, and Victor Kingston, vice president.

Association Board members discussed the County Board of Supervisors' recent decision to withhold rezoning action on the Pine Grove area until the County Planning Commission brings forth a master plan for Orinda, with its recommendation for permanent zoning.

Board members, in their discussion of this item on their agenda, said that they understood that there are no immediate zoning changes planned for the Pine Grove area.

Board members also said that "when nny definite plans are to be pushed" by owners of the property, a presentation will be made to Association members before plans are presented to County officials.

Committee appointments made at Monday night's meeting include Vic Kingston, liaison to the Civic Affairs Committee; Lester Hink, Jr., finance and auditing; Phil Mittell, chairman, publicity and publications committee.

A. W. Young, membership committee chairman; Embree F. Hockenbeamer, program committee chairman, and Don Anderson, liaison to planning committee.

Tentative plans were made for the Annual General Membership Program slated for April 13. The major membership drive, which takes place annually is planned for the early part of March.

Association memberships are $2 annually.

Plans for the April general meeting include a program presentation designed to apprise the members of the activities of the group as to planning and future development of the Orinda area.

The Board plans to obtain speakers from county offices who can inform the members on planning, road development, give a forecast of tax assessment changes and other matters of interest to community members.

Submission of a proposed budget for association operating expenses for the coming year is planned by President Don Anderson for next meeting.

Board members also discussed possible future development plans for Orinda Association property, comprising approximately ten acres. Any "worthwhile use that will serve the community" is the aim of the board.

Stressing that no definite plans for the property are in existence at present, members discussed recreational facilities "of some sort" which would serve the local population, "ont people from other areas."

Board members also discussed a second parcel of land available to the Association by option. "If the general public so desires, acquisition of the property can be made.

Anderson stressed that the property, approximately eight acres, is restricted, if acquired, to civic development.

Robert Babcock Speaks To Orinda Garden Club

Robert Babcock, landscape architect, spoke to the Orinda Garden Club last week.

Babcock's subject was the planting of a new garden as well as on what to plant in a well established one. Babcock drew up the plans for the lanndscaping of the new Orinda library. Garden club members followed these plans, completing them in November 1958.

At a board meseting held at the home of Mrs. Norman Tuttle, it was decided that $25 is to be given to the Orinda Beautification Committee. The money will be used to purchase a large evergreen tree used for the purpose of screening of the parking lot at the entrance of Orinda.

Mrs. Paul Pollaczek, Conservation chairman of the garden club, is an active member of the beautification committee.

Any group or individual wishing to donate a tree may do so by contacting Mrs. Pollaczek. A plaque will be placed on the tree bearing the name of the donor.

The California Garden Clubs Incorporated held a luncheon meeting at the Cliff House in San Francisco last Thursday. Attending this meeting from Orinda were Mrs. Roger Stark, Mrs. J. H. Schwarck and Mrs. Paul Pollaczek.

On March 17, at the Orinda Country Club, representatives of this group from the entire state will be entertained by the Orinda Gardenu Club.

This is the first time in several years that Orinda Garden Club has been hostess to this group. Approximately 150 guests are expected, according to Mrs. Stark, president of the Orinda Garden Club.

Community Pays Tribute To Perc Brown at Dinner

Nielsen, county supervisor; Arthur Flint, past president of the Orinda Association and Man of the Year committee member and Herman Silverman, publisher of the Orinda Sun.

BROWN, IN receiving the Man of the Year award from Silverman said that a good deal of the praise for the completion of the library project should go to the many organizations and individuals which donated time, effort and money toward it.

Brown announced that $4800 would be turned over to the library for the purchase of furniture in the near future.

He outlined that library book circulation is up 55 per cent from December, 1957, and that there are 33 per cent more persons borrowing books.

"Everyday since the completion of the library, there have been six library cards issued on the average." Brown asserted.

Dr. Lester Is Honored By Society

Dr. Robert W. Lester, clinical instructor in optometry and director of the Contact Lens Clinic at the University of California's School of Optometry on the Berkeley campus, has been voted "man of the year" by the San Francisco and Marin Counties Optometric Society, of which he is a member. Dr. Lester also conducts a private practice in San Francisco.

The special honor was conferred on Dr. Lester by his associates in recognition of his leadership as the outstanding authority on contact lenses in the Bay Area. Significant contributions to the development of contact lenses have been made by Dr. Lester's research in this now very practical aid to good vision.

Dr. Lester, who lives with his wife and three sons at 26 Las Palomas Drive, Orinda, also participates in the affairs of his community. Having a family of boys—Robert 13, Stephen 9, David 5—it is natural that their interest in Scouting should inspire this optometrist to take an active interest in Troop 247, where he serves as committee member.

Dr. Lester is also an active Mason in Orinda Lodge 704 F&AM.

Among Mrs. Lester's many community activities she has received special commendation for assisting with the fund raising campaign for the new library. She is presently serving as secretary of the Orinda Civic Affairs Committee.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

The World On A String

HO HO FOR THE YOYO Season & whatever happened to the Hula Hoop? When the yoyos come out & that frog croaks away all day in the Orinda Store flower bed, can Spring be really far behind?

Monday being Ground Hog Day, those daffy daffodils are beating him to the draw, nosing out of the ground to see what's going on after too long in the dark; and hours spent bent-over w/backaches after a bulb-planting session are finally paying off now you can see the green tips boosting themselves up to take a look at the world.

IT'S FEBRUARY month, the futile foolish fickle time. To wash the windows or not to. Clean the mud-caked shoes? Why bother?!

The Weather as fickle as the Heart of the Month that IS the Heart Month. And this is just a gentle nudge to remind you, dear hearts & gentle people, to buy your cards or candy or order your flowers before the mad last-minute rush. What this country needs is more of that sweet Old World Romance! Glad you agree!

THIS IS THE Month of the March of Dimes, for Valentines, for Heart Sunday, and ya gotta have H-E-A-R-T, miles & miles of it!

And All The Kings(ton) Men

Stout-hearted men, an army of marching fathers, will hike the hills next Tuesday nite for the March of Dimes. Good Old Vic, meaning Vic Kingston, community-minded young man about town, heads this year's annual Father's March. Kudos to Mr. Kingston & his all-male company, esp. Vic who has worked hard & long on many projects & still found time to head this cause.

TURN YOUR LIGHTS on Tuesday at 7 & Somebody's Father will put his foot in your door. He'll be fetching perhaps, in a fussy feather hat to assimilate Mama as in the Mothers' March elsewhere.

Here (for the benefit of you newcomers) we switch to the more rugged male since the terrain is ruff, Mother's gams get too much exercise anyhow and the walking is more beneficial to the men than we limp-legged ladies.

Coffee & cake will be served by the Santa Maria Women's Club to the fund-raising fathers at the Orinda school aud. Light up at 7, & Thank Heaven you're on the giving end of the drive.

I'll String Along With You

UP AT SANTA MARIA CHURCH last Tues. a circle of saucer-eyed youngsters stood watching in wonderment & awe as one of the Nuns put a Yoyo through the paces. First a Sleeper, then a Creeper, trickily "walking the doggie" & finishing off w/a "Rock The Baby" w/such finesse! THIS takes practice.

It was a delightful picture, something for Bill O'Malley's books, & reminded us of the scene in "Going My Way" where the Sister showed the KIDS how to pay baseball.

ORINDA School got off to the start of its Duncan YoYo tourney, Alvah Chapple chalking up 100% in the 1st contest . . . Young Johnny Heller outshone all the others in his age group w/his yoyo shenanigans & even the oder boys were wary of this prospective pint-size champ.

LEAVING A TRAIL of tears & many good friends, Mary Tokich left for the east mid-week, She & John (he's on a company transfer) & Ricky to make their home in LaGrange, Illinois.

Their home on Camino Encinas has been purchased by Bill & Kay Marshall of Cascade Lane. This prompted the following dialogue exchange between the two children Ricky Tokich & Pam Marshall, both 4th graders, when the Marshalls would be over to visit the new home they'll move into—Rick would say—"C'mon Pam, I'll show you some toys in MY room" and Pam would come back w/Okay, I'll come & see YOUR toys in MY room".

Grace & Charles Hanks & their 3 sons are up in the clouds contemplating a spring junket to Germany. It's business for Charles & plain monkey-business for Grace & the boys who'll be gone about 2 mos. returning late spring to their house in the hills on El Toyonal. Their eldest Gary being a foreign-car fan, can't wait! He'll really be in his element.

THE ADDISON Thompsons are due home from a cruise to Panama, going by way of Guatemala en route home. Mary & Nathan Gray returned from a holiday hiatus in Mexico to the news that their son had married. A festive reception for flocks of friends & the newly-weds' contemporaries to take place this wknd. The Bob McFarlands, Bill Becketts, John & Liz Folliard were some of those following the fun at the Crosby Tee Party.

CORRECTION: The Carl Schwedhelm's new grandchild is a BOY by name of James Michael!

Esther Fjellbo has joined the commuter-ranks & likes her new job at the Post & Mtg. Crocker-Anglo Bank . . . Pianist Wilbur Baranco has taken his music books from the Strip to the Claremont's Terrace Lounge—for those who like to sing before & after their supper.

BROADENING the beam is broadening the "old bean" as well—for lots of our ladies, have taken up Japanese painting now that Channel 9 is coming through clearer . . . Charlotte Chapple, thoughtful friend, called a Brubeck fan to remind her of his playing on Channel 9. When she learned friend's TV was down & out, she simply set the phone up to TV set & appreciative friend enjoyed the Brubeck beat for forty minutes.

Holiday For Strings, Rings & Symphony!

THIS REMINDS us of young-timers who do their homework together over the phone—oh, aggravating habits! They don't talk, just one at each end w/pen, book & paper & friendship (w/answer if one gets stuck) funneling through an otherwise silent instrument. That's friendship! But chickens, it's maddening, esp. when someone is trying to get hold of your Mom or Pop.

Butch Guarneri & Bob Newman, two of Orinda's young Music Men were among the 100 hand-picked highschool instrumentalists chosen from No. Cal. schools to play a benefit performance Sun. Jan. 17 at the Oakland Aud.

A vast violin section played strong & seriously in front, so serious that one handsome young man's violin dropped to the floor. He recovered it w/poise & started to play again when plinkty-plink, a string broke, dangling loose, as he, mustering more poise, played to the finish of the number.

They were fine performers all, these young topnotch musicians who for the second half of their concert (It raised funds to send them to Salt Lake for a music-teacher's meet) were joined by Dave Brubeck's combo paying one of his original comps "Summersong" as well as single Brubeck offerings.

If you got tickets early for the Las Lomas Youth concerts, consider yourselves luucky! They're all sold out proving we'd like more of this thing in our locale.

THE NEWEST ADDITION to Fitzgerald's Animal Farm (They raise pheasants, ducks, etc.) is a cuddly brand new baby lamb by name of Beanie, the pride & joy of its mother Queenie as well as their owner Karen, young 4-H member of the household.

Ally Rasmussen can tell you better but she has one hysterical story anent the animal-loving Fitzgeralds, Bud & Agnes, who spent one whole evening gently plucking feathers from their pheasants—to furnish the appropriate makings of an Indian headdress for the Rasmussen's grandson & son-in-law.

Ally & Lloyd, by the way, will entertain friends tomorrow night for cocktails at their pretty pink & bamboo Chas. Hill home prior to the Hill n' Dale dance . . . The Rudy Rasmussens are expected as are the Jack Coopers, Cliff & Mary Campbell, Heino & Jack Lackey.

Maytem members Helen Kling & Betty Kallam jumped the gun on their Children's Hospital Branch members by co-hostessing their own early-bird party today, altho' the 3rd annual Maytem Bridge Lunches, held in various members homes, doesn't come off till later this month.

Christening the Kling's newly-completed black & white Family room w/cards & lunch were the Mesdames E. Walsh, Harold Olsen, Ben Singer, Robert Cathcart, Robert Nichols, William Foley & Richmond Stampley.

'Facts' are--Sun Real Estate 'Class' Outnumbers Rivals

'The Facts, Ma'am' that's what the customers of local Contra Costa County newspapers want, and the facts are that The Sun had not only a "record" classified page this week, but also, as usual, the largest number of ads placed by Realtors.

This week, The Sun has 386 column inches of "straight" classified ads, excluding class display—and that is something!

The 386 column inches ran in the Sun Shopping News, and was repeated in full in each of the Sun subscriptions papers in Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Orinda and Pleasant Hill.

This week, The Sun had 198 inches of real estate ads, compared with 171½ for the Times, and 91 for the Walnut Kernel.

More important, The Sun had 59 ads placed by realtors, compared with 28 for the Times and 25 for the Kernel.

'Snow White' To Play Here Next Saturday

It will be theatre time again for many local small fry when the curtain rises on "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" Saturday February 1 at the Stanley School in Lafayette. Two performances will be given—one at 10:30 a.m., another at 2 p.m.

This is the second play in a series of four being given locally under the auspices of the East Bay Children's Theatre, Inc., a non-profit organization whose purpose is to provide real live theatre for the children of the east bay communities.

This version of the famous old fairy tale was dramatized by Marion Johnson. It is a play with music based on the story by the brothers Grimm.

The role of Snow White is being played by Shari Evans who is supported by a cast of her fellow Berkeley High School drama students under the direction of Florence Schwimley and Assistant Student Director, Kathy Stevens. Sets and costumes were all created at the East Bay Children's Theatre workshop in Oakland by volunteer members of the organization and were designed by Mrs. Phillip Poirson.

Local matrons contributing their time and talents to the play's production include Mesdames: Thos. R. Gaines, David Bullen, Rodney Saylor, Will Hall, John Van Dyne, Jack Lackey Jr., Chas. Morrill, Robert Van Gelder, and Nathan Grey.

A limited number of single admissions 65 cents will be available at the box office before performances or may be purchased in advance by calling THornwall 3-2018.

Special arrangements for birthday parties or Brownie and Bluebird groups may also be made by calling the above number.

Diablo Highway Group Hears Tudor Resume

At a meeting in Acalanes High School Tuesday evening, Directors of the Diablo Valley Improvement Federation together with interested friends were given an introduction by Bert La Vigne, project engineer of the Tudor Engineering Company to the Firm's 1958 Report on a system of freeways, expressways and other important roads considered necessary to serve Contra Costa County's traffic needs by 1980.

A novel feature of the report was its compilation without regard to jurisdictional boundaries of State, Counties or Cities.

La Vigne explained that this action was comparable to a motorist's trip between two given points which generally is made by utilization of a combination of State, County and City streets which will afford the route best suited to his purpose without consideration of jurisdiction over those roads.

This was made possbile, he stated, by the passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26 which created the opportunity for State and Counties to participate in a plan for improved highways and roads.

Three major considerations influenced the preparation of the report, he said. They were, determination of need for highways and expressways by 1980, elements of general county interest which could be included in a city-county plan, determination of rights of way the County would need when it reaches its ultimate population or state of saturation, determined by studies of population and land use trends.

La Vigne stated a total of 801 miles of freeways, expressways and major roads, exclusive of city streets, would be required at an approximate cost of $497 million.

Part of this sum would be derived from present County yearly expenditures for capital outlay and State assistance with the balance to be raised during the 21 years of construction required for the target date of 1980.

La Vigne was assisted in answering questions concerning the proposed roadway system by Ray Brown, deputy director of Public Works for Contra Costa County and Mark Kermit, county traffic engineer who stated, "For the first time we have a logical system and long range master plan on which to progress toward the ultimate in highway needs."

After the report, election of officers and directors of the Federation for 1959 was held. New directors elected were Harold J. Raynes, Jack Wolverton and Grant Burton from Walnut Creek.

Richard Knipe from Canyon, Al Becker from Pleasant Hill, Joseph Cappa from Alamo, Charles Johnson from Danville and Arthur M. Flit and Robert L. Grant from Orinda.

Officers and directors elected who had previously served were Harold E. Mutnick chairman, H. K. Forsman, vice chairman and Dudley W. Thickens, secretary-treasurer, all of Lafayette.

Directors, Robert F. Guichard, Elliot Hartman, Edward M. Rowland from Lafayette, G. S. Trumbley, Orinda and Otto H. Strobel and Peter D. Unda of Walnut Creek.

WHETHER A PRELIMINARY hearing will be held in Walnut Creek Justice Court into the accidental slaying of Bruce Batt early this month will be decided next week by District Attorney John Nejedly. Pictured at the coroner's inquest into the shooting of the youth are Dr. H. T. Fraser, coroner, center, and John Burrow, 5 Hampton Road, Orinda, who shot the boy. A court reporter is at the far left. —Sun photo

Nejedly Is Noncommittal Following Inquest Here

District Attorney John Nejedly was noncommittal following a coroner's jury verdict of accidental death in the shooting of Bruce F. Batt last January 13 in Orinda at the Hampton Road home of John B. Burrow.

Preliminary hearing for Burrow, slated for Walnut Creek Judicial District Court, has been delayed pending further results of the inquest.

Nejedly said "there are a couple of other minor things we want to check out first, before deciding what action we'll ask."

Burrow, who has been free on his own recognizance since his arraignment on January 15 before Judge Betsy FitzGerald Rahn, voluntarily took the stand at the inquest to testify as the last of six witnesses heard.

All told essentially the same story, that Batt, 18, a friend of Burrow's, drove to Burrow's home with Lee Griffith, 19, to show hima new car muffler.

Griffith left Batt in the darkness and drove off to return later.

Witnesses agreed that Batt had pulled practical jokes on Burrow from time to time. On the night of his fatal shooting, the youth apparently emulated a prowler attempting to break into the Burrow home.

Burrow, investigating, ironically shot Batt with the boy's own gun which had been left at the Burrow home.

Burrow said that he didn't remember whether he actually pulled the trigger or whether the gun was grabbed or jostled. He said that he didn't recognize his friend until he had been fatally wounded.

Sheriff's Detective Charles A. Myhre testified at the inquest that Burrow's answers under a polygraph test appeared to be truthful.

There was one puzzling note in the report of a state crime laboratory expert concerning absence of the customary "smudge" ring around the bullet hole as it entered the outer garment Batt was wearing.

This caused conjecture that the bullet might have passed through some other material first.

Dimes Campaign Helping 400 Polio Cases

In Contra Costa County alone, there are 400 polio cases for which the March of Dimes is paying medical bills, J. Nolan Stockton, county chairman, said today.

"Last year the county chapter of The National Foundation paid out approximately $131,000 for hospital, medical and other expenses incurred by polio patients, creating a deficit which must be met this year if Contra Costa is to pay its own way in the new, expanded program against polio, arthritis and birth defects," he said.

He cited the figures in a plea for more contributions by all citizens of this area. Asking residents who have not done so to return their March of Dimes mailers promptly with generous contributions, Stockton also called attention to the coin collectors which have been placed in public places throughout the county.

Capwell's Promotes Three Local Executives

Either Lafayette and Orinda have a "hold" on Capwell's, or the reverse is true.

When an organization the size of Capwell's announces four executive promotions covering the entire East Bay area, and when three of the four men promoted live in the above communities, and when the general manager who makes the announcement lives in Lafayette, then you have more than just a coincidence!

Promotions announced by A. R. Batchelder, general manager of Capwell's and a Lafayette resident, are:

CLARENCE COMPTON, Orinda, from store manager Capwell's-El Cerrito to general superintendent all Capwell's stores.

Frank Tebbs, Orinda, from store manager Capwell's-Hayward to divisional merchandise manager for men's and boy's wear, luggage, stationery, silverware, books and magazines and cameras.

Harold Sage, Orinda, from merchandise manager Capwell's-Hayward to store manager Capwell's-Hayward.

Paul Grunland from merchandise manager Capwell's-El Cerrito to store manager Capwell's-El Cerrito.

THE NEW CAPWELL'S general superintendent, Compton, has been with the company 13 years in various posts. Prior to his appointment in 1958 as store manager of Capwell's-El Cerrito, he was operating superintendent of the Oakland store.

Born in Orange, California, he attended the local high school and Santa Ana Junior College, receiving his bachelor of arts degree from College of the Pacific. An enthusiast of woodcraft and model railroads, Compton make his home in Orinda with his wife, the former Marian Pease, daughter Leslie, 16, and a son, William, 9.

In commenting about his new appointment today Compton stated, "While I will miss the enjoyable relationships I have established in our El Cerrito area, I am welcoming these additional responsibilities. It will be my endeavor in this new position to maintain the traditional Capwell standards for fine customer service for all our stores."

FRANK TEBBS, the newly appointed divisional merchandise manager, was, prior to his appointment as store manager of Capwell's-Hayward in 1957, store manager of Capwell's-Walnut Creek and was for a number of years advertising director of Capwell's. He has been with the company 28 years.

Tebbs makes his home in Orinda with his wife the former Lola Almand and daughter Christine. He is a tennis enthusiast and gardener. "Because of a real interest in merchandising I feel this new job will be a challenging one. I have enjoyed working in the Hayward area and want to thank the various civic and business leaders who have been so extremely helpful."

In a statement today Sage, newly appointed store manager Capwell's-Hayward stated, "The administrative [illegible] this appointment as store manager of Capwell's-Hayward me an opportunity to further serve the residents of the Hayward area."

SAGE, A NATIVE Canadian, started his career as a salesman for Capwell's in the early 1930's and has held a number of responsible positions with the firm. Residing in Orinda, father of four children aged 9 to 18, and an avid gardener, Sage is a proud wearer of Capwell's 25-year service pin.

A native of Portland, Oregon, Paul Grunland, newly appointed store manager of Capwell's-El Cerrito entered Capwell's Promotional Training Program in 1948. He holds a master of business administration degree from the University of California at Berkeley.

With his wife Mary, Grunland makes his home in Berkeley and he is an active member of the Sierra Club.

Loveridge, Dent Are Unification Speakers, Feb. 11

Mrs. Doris Loveridge and James W. Dent, board member and superintendent respectively of Mt. Diablo Unified School District, will describe experiences of their district under unification at a meeting of the Contra Costa County Committee on School District Organization February 11.

Dr. Jack Shahbazian, chairman, said the meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria of Acalanes High School.

The committee, plus the boards of the Acalanes Union High School District area, will continue its study of the possibility of unifying the schools of the area.

The area includes the high school, Orinda Union, Moraga, Canyon, Lafayette and Walnut Creek districts.

A 1959 chairman and vice chairman will be elected.

Members of the district organization committee in addition to the chairman are as follows: Francis Brady, Rodeo; Wilfred Carpenter, Brentwood; Bert J. Davi, Pittsburg; W. M. Leath, Concord; Frank E. Loher and Phillip Millspaugh, El Cerrito.

Mrs. Margaret Plummer, Martinez; Mrs. Margaret Price, Walnut Creek; Donald Shepherd, Pittsburg; and T. W. Leedham Antioch.

Mitchell Balked In Try To Table Sewer Tax Study

Director Richard Mitchell moved to table a study of sewer use fees and connection charges at this week's Central Contra Costa Sanitary District directors' meeting. Mitchell attempted to table the study indefinitely.

He was unable to get a second for the motion. Several residents appeared at the meeting to protest the proposal which would call for a sewer use charge for each home and a connection fee on more than 9000 homes that joined the district before 1950, when an ordinance providing such fees was adopted.

Protesting residents were assured by Board President William Fisher that adequate advance notice and hearing will be granted before any ordinance is adopted.

Director Irving Roemer said the study is an attempt to find the most fair and equitable way of assessing for district services

Orinda-Moraga Scouts Open Membership Drive

The Orinda-Moraga units of the Boy Scouts of America this week opened their annual drive for sustaining memberships.

Frank J. Kastner, 15 Culver Court, Orinda, cubmaster of Pack 57, has been appointed chairman of the drive in this area. Last Thursday evening, Kastner and leaders from each of the cub packs and Boy Scout troops met at the Orinda School to lounch the campaign.

The committee's aim is to contact all parents of scouts and friends of scouting in the Orinda-Moraga area in the interest of financial support for the scout program.

Boy Scout activities are supported to a considerable extent by financial aid from the United Crusade. The balance of the amount needed for the scouts' operating budget has always been raised through the sustaining membership drive.

This year, United Crusade officials have forecast a decrease in agency allocations due to inadequate funds. It is estimated by scout executives that over one-half of their budget will have to be provided through sustaining memberships.

Kastner and the committee are hopeful that the response to this need in the Orinda-Moraga area will be a generous one.

The Junior Choir will sing in the East Bay Junior Choir Festival at 4 p.m. Sunday, February 8, at the First Methodist Church in Oakland, under the direction of Mauriee Ellison.

New Manager Is Named at Rheem

Promotion of Bob Michalak to the position of manager of the Safeway store in the Rheem Shopping Center, Rheem, California, was announced today by C. O. Jensen, local district manager for the food chain.

Michalak, a 12 year veteran with the company, succeeds Wayne Madden who was seriously injured over the holiday season in an auto accident. It will be several months before Madden will be able to return to his duties with the company.

Starting as a food clerk in 1946, Michalak has held several supervisory positions prior to this promotion. Most recently he was assistant manager of the Menlo Park Safeway.

In addition to in-store training Michalak received special training in a series of management workshops conducted by the frm. The workshops are designed to assist outstanding employees in developing management skills, Jensen stated.

Michalak and his wife, Doris, and their three children, Bill, 10; Susan, 7; and Kathy, 3, soon will move to the Rheem area.

Acalanes District Rates High on Conant Scale

Miramonte, Acalanes and Las Lomas High Schools "look good," in comparison with the standards revealed today by Dr. James Bryant Conant in an address before the National Association of School Board Trustees in San Francisco.

On the basis of preliminary reports on his two-year study on what the good comprehensive American high school should be doing, Acalanes High School District trustees and district officials this week reviewed the local high school program and compared it with Conant's recommendations.

Acalanes District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons praised Conant's work and noted that, "Conant's study should provide a national impetus for upgrading interest in secondary education."

Parsons then listed Conant's recommendations for a comprehensive secondary program with a point by point comparison of existing educational efforts in the three Acalanes District schools:

1. CONANT: "Every student should be required to take four years of English; three or four years of social studies, including two years of history one of which should be American, and a senior course in American government; a year of math and a year of science.

Acalanes District: "Our schools generally follow this practice, although three years of English is not required. However, all college prep students, representing the majority of the student body, take four years of English."

2. Conant: "Students should be grouped by ability, except in American government. Three groups for slow, middle and fast learners should be enough."

Acalanes District: "Local high schools practice limited grouping procedures and are currently working on an extension of the grouping idea. Definite grouping exists in science and math instruction. The district is proceeding on proposals for grouping in social studies and English. We have been studying programs for slower learners so that each pupil can reach optimum development for himself.

When the slower learner is removed to work at a pace he can handle, the rest of the group is free to move ahead faster and able to cover more ground."

3. Conant: "The highly gifted top three per cent of the students should be given advanced work and actual college courses in the 12th grade."

Acalanes District: "Highly gifted pupils receive special consideration from each school's counseling service. They are encouraged to work on individual projects in areas of their particular interest."

4. Conant: "The academically talented—the top 15 to 20 per cent of students—should be guided into a program including four years of math, three science, four of a single foreign language, and the required English and social studies.

Acalanes District: "The type of courses recommended by Conant for the 'Academically talented' pupil is provided by local high schools. Conant's figures on 'academically talented' are based on national averages.

"The Acalanes District has more students in this learning group than the national average. Considerably more than one-half of our students go on to college (Conant's criteria for 'academically talented' is the college able student). Four years of English, foreign language and three to four years of science and math are open to this student in local high schools."

5. Conant: "Students not planning for college, and seeking marketable skills, should be offered industrial arts, business and vocational courses in high school."

ACALANES DISTRICT: "While a majority of our students are college preparatory, we have courses in business skills (typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, business machines), home economics, shop work and mechanical drawing in each of our schools to provide adequate educational opportunities for all types of student."

6. Conant: "Students whose reading skill is markedly low should receive special instruction under teachers who are interested in working with this group."

Acalanes District: "Special Reading Improvement' courses are provided in each local high school for students with reading problems. All district students, whether they have specific reading problems or not, are involved in reading units through their English and other courses."

7. Conant: "Every pupil should have an individualized program."

Acalanes District: "Provisions for individual programs for each student are arranged and maintained through the counseling departments at each school. In conjunction with counseling students into programs best suited to their aptitude and interests, all schools in the district are currently taking Iowa tests to determine each student's academic profile. This is done each year with freshmen and junior students."

8. CONANT: "There should be one full time counseler for every 250 to 300 pupils. Counselors should have teaching experience and should have training for counseling."

Acalanes District: "The district operates a well-organized, effective counseling program with teachers specifically trained to do this job. However, we do not meet the pupil/counselor ratio advocated by Conant—which is essentially a ratio that would be maintained in an 'ideal' counseling situation. For one thing, it is currently a financial impossibility for the district to maintain the ratio recommended by Conant."

9. "Half of the time devoted to English should be given to composition to insure the development of the ability to write English. English teachers should teach no more than 100 pupils."

Acalanes District: "A study of time spent on composition work in district English classes has been underway. Teachers in the past have been encouraged to emphasize written work in their English courses. The 100 pupils per teacher ratio has not been possible. Again, it is an 'ideal' situation. The district cannot fiscally support such a ratio at this time."

10. Conant: "Schools should offer a third and fourth year of a foreign language."

Acalanes District: "Four year language courses are offered. Courses in foreign language in the district include Latin, Spanish, French and German."

11. Conant: "Academic inventories — a device for examining the program elected by students during their four years should be completed for each pupil in the top 15 per cent of the graduating class to see if the academically talented pupil has studied the courses he should have studied."

Acalanes District: "A continuous inventory of courses elected versus student ability is kept by each student's counselor. A broader collective inventory is underway."

12. Conant: "Graduating classes should not be listed by academic ranking or valedictorian picked by similar selection. Bright students often elect easier courses to insure high grades or high class standing."

ACALANES DISTRICT: "No ranking is made. Graduation speakers are selected by tryouts open to interested pupils."

13. Conant: "An honors list should be published of graduates who have made an honors average in their courses."

Acalanes District: "Two honors lists are maintained at each school. The California Scholarship Federation Honors List, a state-wide honor group; and the Honor Society on each campus for qualified students."

14. Conant: "In addition to the diploma each graduate should receive a durable record of all courses studied and the grades obtained—especially for prospective employers."

Acalanes District: "Applying a record on the back of each diploma has been discussed. However, academic records for every pupil are available and the district has always encouraged employers to avail themselves of their use."

15. Conant: "Unless a high school has a graduating class of at least 100, that school is too small to offer a sufficiently diversified curriculum to meet the needs of all of its pupils."

Acalanes District: "All graduating classes in the district exceed Conant's 100 minimum by far".

Pope Explains How Survey Figures Misled

Sixty - two percent of Walnut Creek area residents are NOT going to Oakand for their men's apparel purchases, although this was a misunderstanding typical for Question No. 15 in Norris Pope's "Market Survey" outlined at a Chamaber of Commerce meeting last week.

Pope told The Sun, "I knew that there was some people there who didn't follow that part of it, and I suppose that I went over it too fast."

"It meant that each number was a percentile figure, and in each the basis was 100 per cent for Walnut Creek.

"IN THE CASE of Men's apparel, Walnut Creek is considered 100 per cent, and 62 per cent as many peope prefer Oakland for buying men's apparel, as prefer Walnut Creek. It is in each case, a comparison of how well the other area looks next to Walnut Creek.

"Or putting it another way, for each 1000 persons preferring Walnut Creek for men's apparel, 620 prefer Oakkland, and so forth," he said.

Pope went down the list, which showed that for women's apparel, "Concord is 40 per cent as good as Walnut Creek."

Also: children's apparel: Concord — 41 per cent; shoes: Concord—37 per cent; home furnishings: Oakland—87 per cent; appliances: Oakland—63 per cent.

THE 113 per cent listed after hardware simply means that for every 100 people who shop for hardware in Walnut Creek, 113 persons shop in their own "local stores", i.e., those stores near their own homes.

Similarly, 62 persons shop "locally" for drugs, for every 100 who go to Walnut Creek for drug products. The figure is 106 per cent for paint products, 46 per cent for sporting goods.

People who go to Oakland for their musical instruments number about 30 per cent of the Walnut Creek patrons, and as above for every 100 people who buy flowers in Walnut Creek, 71 buy "locally" or near their homes.

Pope gave the results of the survey which took four weeks, and included 2000 visits to homes in the area by about 30 workers. He was introduced by Harold Turner, program chairman.

HE SAID that a good cross section of the area was reached, and added that the real benefits will be available when the survey is reduced to written report form, and given to the sponsoring Chamber officials.

Ramsey Undersheriff; Named by Young

Sheriff Walter F. Young announced that Lieutenant Harry D. Ramsay was promoted to the rank of undersheriff effective Wednesday.

Reemphasizing his pledge to choose the most qualified candidate for each position in his department, Sheriff Young stated that Undersheriff Ramsey will bring to his new duties a variety of "on the job experience" that made his selection as top Civil Service administrative officer mandatory.

Citing Ramsay's World War II duty as sergeant, his subsequent employment as deputy grade I at the then county farm, appointment as resident deputy sheriff for the eastern area from Antioch to the eastern line—handling all civil, patrol and investigative problems both day patrol and on call seven days per week; followed by assignment to Martinez, Lafayette and Richmond patrol areas for county-wide experience in all phases of patrol, eight months as a radio dispatcher, assignment as photographer and bureau-man, appointment as detective, inspector, Lafayette substation, appointment as investigator, district attorney's office for a period of 19 months and presently holding the rank of lieutenant detective division, sheriff's department, Undersheriff Ramsay's widely diversified experience has made him the outstanding candidate for this appointment, said Sheriff Young.

Stan Walgren Speaks To Lafayette Rotarians

"Free enterprise is revitalizing and stirring the economy of Europe and some of the countries of the Middle East," Stanley Walgren, Acalanes High School principal told the Lafayette Rotary Club Thursday noon at El Nido Cafe. Walgren based his observations on an extensive tour last summer of the Continent and Middle East area.

"Today the world is groping to find a way of life which will provide more benefits for the masses than they have been able to obtain in the past," said Alexander Winchester in introducing Mr. Walgren. "We in America have obtained a high living standard through the development and use of the Free Enterprise system: The communist countries are more inclined to place their hope in state socialism often amounting to legalized slavery for great masses of their people.

"Walgren is bringing to us some first-hand impressions of the probable reaction of certain of the peoples in critical areas to this challenge."

In his talk, Walgren pointed out that the free enterprise system had exerted a tremendous stimulus to the economies of West Germany, the Benelux countries, Switzerland, England, Italy and Austria since the war, and that the beneficial results had been especially noticeable in West Germany and Italy.

Walgren observed that in the Middle Eastern countries of Greece, Turkey, Lebanon, Syria and Egypt, "The best economic strides are being made with free enterprise methods in Turkey, Greece and Lebanon. In the countries which have flirted with communism, Egypt and Syria, there has been the least economic progress."

Comparing the economies of the United States and the countries abroad, Walgren stated, "Most people here don't realize how fortunate they are to live under a free economic system; one of the greatest things the United State has to offer any of the nations abroad."

In closing the meeting President John Lindberg said "The entire world is discussing, weighing and being influenced by the forces that you have discussed so well: The conflict is not new, neither are the principal opponents: In 1831 Alexis De Tocqueville returned to his beloved France after studying American institutions and wrote: 'There are at the present two great nations in the world, which started from different points, but seem to tend toward the same end. I allude to the Russians and the Americans . . . The Anglo-American relies upon personal interest to accomplish his ends, and gives free scope to the unguided strength and common sense of the people: the Russian centers all the authority of society in a single arm. The principal instrument of the former is freedom, of the latter servitude.'"

The Wheels Are Turning--- But Just Not Far Enough!

The voice of the people has been heard, and wheels are beginning to turn!

Unfortunately, the wheels haven't turned far enough—at least not yet—and somebody is going to have to apply a little more pressure to the gears.

The wheels we are talking about belong to the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, and we find that we are still in it, and what's more, we're still paying taxes, for which we receive no benefit.

The transit district board of directors has come up with the suggestion that legislation be sent to Sacramento which would enable the transit district board to set up a "special service area."

This would allow the board to call for another bond issue election, but with the vote restricted to Alameda County residents.

We would not vote on such a proposal, and we would not pay for the bond retirement, in return. We would also receive no benefit.

THIS IS NOTHING new. The Sun suggested, over a year ago, that if the Oakland residents wanted to buy Key System, we, for one, thought it was a good idea. We also suggested that they might hold a bond issue for this purpose.

All we asked was that we not be included.

Well, we were included, and you know what happened to THAT bond issue.

Just prior to the election the transit district made some generous proposals for service for Contra Costa County should the bond issue pass. But the election should have proved to the transit board that this area just plain didn't want to accept its magnanimous offer.

Now, about this legislation. We think it is an excellent idea, but it is imperative that legislation also be enacted that will permit an area to either annex or withdraw from the district.

THE TRANSIT directors are aware of the feelings of Central Contra Costa residents, but they seem loath to let any part of the present district get away from them.

Nearly everybody in Contra Costa County who had any official say, is opposed to our being included in the district. This includes the board of supervisors and the present district attorney.

These groups have met with the transit district board on several occasions and have asked repeatedly that the district seek legislation that would permit our exclusion.

Therefore, if the transit district is going to take legislation to Sacramento, it is imperative that they include exclusion and annexation provisions in it.

Legislation which would simply set up provisions for a special service district, but which would not permit us to vote on exclusion, would not be satisfactory.

We feel, presently, that we should withdraw from the district. That is what the people indicated at the last bond election. There are good arguments for remaining within the district, too.

But let's establish legislation that will permit withdrawal—or permit a vote on the question, and then we can decide.

After all, some other area may want out, too.

OUR COUNTY OFFICIALS should stand firm and our legislators should pay heed to their wishes.

We may find that the battle may be carried right to Sacramento. If the transit district will not listen to us, we may have to submit our own legislation. If this is done, it would be good for our assemblyman and senator to be aware of the wishes of the people from this area.

We may find that we would like to stay in the district, if there were no taxes, for example. But right now we are paying into the district and getting nothing in return . . . we are helping to pay the administrative costs.

This costs us money, and it is an unjustified expense at present.

The wheels are turning, but they haven't turned far enough.

Thank You, Junior Chamber!

Let's take off our hats to the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

In each of our communities, there is a very active group of young men who contribute their time, efforts and abilities to the betterment of the community.

And they do this quietly, without seeking plaudits and rewards. It would be impossible to list the many contributions made by the local Junior Chambers of Commerce, because they are legion.

The Orinda Jaycees came out in force for the tree planting and beautification work.

THE LAFAYETTE Jaycees tramped through the hills and down the streets bearing incorporation petitions.

The Walnut Creek Jaycees quietly continue their work with handicapped Boy Scouts.

The Pleasant Hill Jaycees are responsible for the acquisition of a surplus Navy jet airplane which is providing constant recreation for thousands of youngsters.

And in our various communities the Jaycees have gotten behind the awards banquets for outstanding citizens, and this is not a simple job.

It is almost impossible to assess the value of such an organization to the community. All we need to do to recognize the worth of these groups is to stop and think of the gap that would be left if they cease to function.

THE BACKBONE of any such service organization is the individual member, and the contribution each makes to the organization as a whole.

Therefore, to those young, alert men of our communities who are not attached to a service organization, we recommend the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

You will find that you will benefit immensely, and you will find a warm welcome from your nearest Jaycee organization.

Why not join this week?

You will be contributing to a worthwhile group, and the community will thank you for your work.

Again, let's take off our hats to the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Peddlers Beware . . .

BOB RAPIDA

In the near future, residents of Contra Costa County may find relief from over zealous and sometimes obnoxious peddlers who make false claims and use high pressure methods to gain a sale.

County residents, if laws proposed are passed, may soon also be assured that tradesmen and peddlers will be free of criminal records.

SHERIFF WALTER F. Young, an ex-deputy sheriff and patrol sergeant, and Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen of the Second District, have been working together to formulate a peddler control ordinance.

If this ordinance is passed by the supervisors it will be required that all peddlers and/or delivery type salesmen will be fingerprinted and photographed.

After fingerprinting and photographing the applicant for peddler's license would be checked out through the Bureau of Criminal Identfication in Sacramento.

If the applicant is found to be an habitual criminal or has a poor police record, his application would be denied by the controlling agency, presumably the sheriff's office.

IF THE PERSON'S record is questionable, then a conditional permit would be approved pending performance of the individual.

No doubt a number of complaints and the personal experience of both Young and Nielsen brought about the proposal for the licensing of peddlers.

Undoubtedly, chambers of commerce have registered complaints to both administrative and law enforcement agencies in the county concerning the activities of itinerant peddlers.

Of course, any such legislation brought about by the county will not be absolute insurance that the claims made by peddlers will be factual, but it will be an indication that the peddler, after showing his identification card, has passed the qualifications set up by the county.

SUPERVISOR NIELSEN was aware of the situation and problems created by peddlers over a year ago when he asked the City of San Marino for its peddler ordinance. Nielsen had been informed by a constituent, a former resident of that city, that such an ordinance existed.

Young was aware of the situation from his days on patrol.

The two men put their ideas together and through cooperation the proposed ordinance for the protection and welfare of the housewife, primarily, may become a reality.

The proposed ordinance may well put a crimp in both the activities of the supervisors—they will have to figure out how to pay for the program, and the sheriff—he'll have to figure out how to administer it, but the end result will be beneficial to the taxpayer.

A little cooperation among policy makers goes a long way to make the taxpayer feel a little happier with his tax bill.

Somebody's 'Rocking' All Those Dream, Dream Boats

By MARIE MONAHAN

IS YOUR Household hep to the Hit Parade? Do you know the Top Tunes & Keep up w/KOBY? If you have YOUTH in the house, you know, natch, who Ricky is & that Elvis is struggling for survival after competition from one Conway Twitty.

How can you HELP it? You turn the raucous raving radio down. The young people turn it up again Louder & LOUDER.

THAT OLD FAVORITE, "Tea For Two" runs a relentless ChaCha, not TOO badly, but tears come to our eyes when we hear what they've done to "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes" as well as "I Had A Dream, Dear."

They may have put the Rock & Roll into this generation's music. But, brother, Someplace along the record route, they left the Romance out. Way Out.

After spending several days w/the radio, record shops & pouring over Pops Tabulations, we consider it a wise move to retrogress to music mid-Victorian, say back there to the 40's.

As the song from "Oklahoma" goes, "We've gone about as far as we can go." The Wrong Way.

WHERE now are the ballads to stir up romantic ideas & ideals — the old kind of songs that went Moon, spoon, June, croon, like the rash of spellbinders from a few years back?

REMEMBER Blue Moon, Moon over Miami, Paper Moon, Moonlight Becomes You . . . and Polkadots & Moonbeams, Me & the Moon, just to name a few. Some of which, thank Heaven & Messrs. Rodgers & Hart, Gershwin, etal, are currently being revived.

But not PUSHED. Like some of the platters.

THE AIRWAVES GROAN under gravel-throated girls. Or guitar-playing boys who need a haircut. On Jump & jive, the jukeboxes thrive.

And Johnny Jones & Jane Smith aren't picking THEIR favorites, they're just going along w/what they HEAR the rest of the kids in the country are screaming for. Hah!

Songs come & Songs go. The good ones stick for awhile. And the Very Good Ones go on forever.

W/the exception of diverse musical comedy selections, it is difficult to find even five tunes that have withstood the test of time in the last few years.

We just hope that when the young people of this generation (who haven't had much of that old world Moonlight & Roses in their music) are married & settling down to celebrate an anniversary, we just HOPE they don't have to recall "Real Wild Child" or "Gotta Travel on" as Their Song.

"I Got Stung" would be a heck of a song to be celebrating an anniversary with.

Remembrance of Things Past Cause 'Nostalgia'

By JOYCE BARNUM

Driving around the Central County area this week, time and again remembrances of things past have brought on a big case of nostalgia.

Never one to keep things to myself, I'll pass on a few of the memories that crowded before me.

TAKE THE MATTER of schools. Twenty five years ago grammar schools existed here . . . Orinda had one, as did Canyon, Moraga, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Alamo, Danville and Concord.

There were two high schools in the area . . . San Ramon at Danville and Mt. Diablo at Concord.

The Sacramento Northern cars bulged with high school students from all over the county riding the rails to Mt. Diablo High (Alamo and Danville teeners, of course, excepted).

THE "OLD" TUNNEL was still in use. This wasn't a suburban area—yet. In fact we used to vacation near Lafayette, a community then of a couple of hundred year-round residents with a large summer population due to the people who maintained summer homes there.

I used to vacation somewhere in the middle of the present stretch of freeway that by-passes Lafayette. I almost drive off the freeway each time I drive past that point, so badly am I afflicted with nostalgia.

Orinda and Lafayette were fine places to spend the summer. If you ever drove the old tunnel road, and/or lived through the depression, you'l know why commuters were few and were considered pretty off-beat.

In the late 30's the "new" tunnel road went in. So great an improvement was it over the old that it was considered quite fit for commuters.

YOU COULD make it from Walnut Creek to San Francisco in 40 minutes and so more and more people began to build homes throughout the area.

Some credit should go to FHA and a beginning climb out of the depression too.

In the late 30's we who lived in Walnut Creek played badminton in the auditorium of the Walnut Creek grammar school.

In the early 40's a radically modern high school building was added out in Acalanes Valley. We took to our cars and played badminton in the "new" gym there.

Letters to The Editor

CONCERN

DEAR EDITOR:

We are deeply concerned, as chairman of the local March of Dimes program, over the apathy towards contributions for this service to humanity.

Our county Secretary informs the writer, that funds in her office have sunk to such low ebb, that she has had to use her own money to pay for nurses aid, an aid that involves some around the clock help, as well as lesser need.

There are 22 cases in our own county of Contra Costa, of serious affliction, in need of OUR help, this applies to Polio alone!!!

Can we let these poor victims down? Will we help others to come, as surely as they will and have, even though the Salk vaccine is here, immunity is NOT 100 per cent!!!

One of our area Doctors has become a bed-ridden patient, after helping many, many Polio victims . . . will we turn our backs on her? Please telephone us and we will come and collect your offerings . . HELP Us . . to Help Others . . Give HOPE . . Courage . . Confidence.

Tomorrow our little girls will be in the business area with cans for collections also . . . our BLUE CRUTCH GIRLS . . . be kind to THEM . . PLEASE!!

When you look into the mirror . . be grateful . . be HAPPY . . and GIVE HOPE to others.

LARRY BLAKESLEY

NARCOTICS

DEAR EDITOR:

My husband and I wish to thank you for the opportunity provided by the "Sun" to sign the Elks Narcotic Petition, of which we were previously unaware.

At the present time, when the criminal almost automatically receives the support of inert officials, professional lovers-of-mankind, sob sisters and assorted fools, it is most heartening to find that some people are realistieally attacking the narcotics problem at its source, the peddler.

Even Mr. Barnes' lengthy letter of protest against the petition is most interesting in its omissions—at no point does he express concern with the situation of the peddler's victim, nor does he show any interest in society's responsibility toward present and future victims.

HE CAN SUGGEST a sanitarium-type of restraining institution for the peddlers doubtful regeneration, but he suggests no action for the victim's cure and rehabilitation.

Since I believe that society's solicitude should lie with the victim instead of with the criminal, I would approve of legislation that would result in the speedy trial and execution of narcotics peddlers.

Although this wouldn't afford theoretical rehabilitation of the peddler, it obviously would eliminate his future crimes. It would also offer his suffering victims the comfort of knowing that society punishes when they cannot.

DEATH SENTENCE legislation would serve to reduce my involuntary subsidization of ineffectual prison and parole systems that continually return criminals to a society that they have forfeited through their actions. (If Mr. Barnes can assume that the peddler has "a reflective type of personality" I believe that I am entitled to assume that the peddler exerts free will in choosing to sell narcotics!)

Along with death legistlation for the peddler, it seems to me there should be legislation providing for free, specialized, curative hospitals for the victims.

Such treatment is presently difficult to obtain outside of public insane asylums and private sanitariums. This legislation should also provide incurable addicts with free, life-time rations of narcotics; I am told that acceptable narcortics can be substituted for the aggression producing ones such as heroin and marijuana.

Emphatic legislation of this nature would be economical in the long run, would remove the profit-motive in narcotic peddling, and would probably destroy narcotics addiction within the span of one generation.'

JUANITA MacHUGH

MORE DOPE

DEAR EDITOR:

At the suggestion of Mrs. Mae Duncan, the Narcotic Petition appearing in a recent edition of the Sun was reproduced and circulated at the January 15 meeting of the Lafayette Senior Citizens.

The petitions with the signatures obtained are enclosed in support of your very commendable and worthy effort to combat the narcotics menace.

NORMAN E. ROCKER
President.

(Editors Note: A typed petition signed by 49 people accompanied this letter.)

DEAR EDITOR:

Enclosed find the "Petition for Narcotics" which appeared in your recent issue.

I secured signature of two of my friends also. I wish I had more petitions as I think this is one law that should be invoked and also enforced to the limit.

These people are worse than outright murderers as they condemn their victims to lives of sorrow and despair and often, crime.

MRS. J. B. GIBSON.

Under The Sun

Do You Want Something To Get Mad About?

By Herman Silverman

Do you mind if I get good and mad for a few minutes?

I've been storing this beef for years—ever since seeing the tremendous waste of manpower and money during World War II.

There is some excuse for the appalling waste by our armed services during a war. Much of it cannot be helped. But each year in peacetime millions upon millions of dollars are squandered by our great army, navy, air force, marines and their step cousins, the Veterans Administration.

I know I'm not telling you anything new. Millions of words have been written on this subject. But two recent events have brought me to the boiling point.

Build and Tear Down

Item 1: The Armed Services Committee of both houses of Congress have approved the army's request to dispose of Camp Stoneman in Pittsburg.

Where is the army moving to? Other bases and Parks Air Force Base, just a few miles from here, near Livermore.

How come there is room at Parks Base? Well, you see the air force has moved out and declared Parks surplus. I now get doubly mad. A few years after the war, the air force decided it needed a base. There were installations available all over California, which were not being used. So, of course, the air force spent millions of dollars of YOUR MONEY to build a brand new base—at Parks. And now a few years later they abandon it—and spend millions more on bases elsewhere.

Another department heard from

The army and navy do the same thing. Now let's get madder than ever: The Veterans Administration decides a new hospital is needed in the East Bay. They search the area; almost select Orinda and then decide on Martinez. Thousands upon thousands of YOUR dollars are being spent to purchase the site.

But what is wrong with utilizing the Parks Base, declared surplus by the air force, or Camp Stoneman, declared surplus by the army? Parks, for example, already has a hospital. True, it is probably not as good as the VA wants, but certainly some of the buildings could be used. If not, then just use the land.

Now read news item NO. 2, written by Jack Foisie in the Chronicle:

"The army language school, given a permanent home at Monterey in 1946, is now operating on an "uneconomical basis" because of lack of support from sister services.

"The complaint was voiced in a Congressional subcommittee report, made public this week. It recommended that an air force decision to withdraw students studying Russian here and send them to private colleges be countermanded by the Defense Department.

The Admirals and Generals

"The air force has 325 students at the school, all taking a concentrated course in Russian. Under the notice given the school several months ago, all air force students will leave by the end of 1959.

"The navy has never abandoned its own much smaller language school near Washington, D. C., sending to Monterey only an occasional overflow of students.

"The total enrollment now at the school here is 1540, of which 914 are army personnel from colonels to privates. The school has 418 civilian instructors teaching 28 languages.

"The air force said it was withdrawing from the Monterey school because it could contract to obtain the same type of military language instruction at universities such as Yale or Syracuse for equal or lower cost.

"This contention was derided by the report. It said such a splitting up of instruction among the army school, other military schools being started by counter-intelligence agencies and the universities under contract to to the air force would mean wasteful duplication.

"It would also mean open competition for the relatively few instructors fresh enough from the 'old country' to know modern idioms which must be learned by men going into intelligence work."

That's the end of the news story.

Here are just a few small examples of the tremendous waste and inefficiency and lack of cooperation among our armed services. Multiply this by billions of dollars.

Well, what do you think?

Letters to The Editor

TRANSPORTATION

DEAR EDITOR:

I have read with great interest your editorial page discussions of January 16 entitled "Transportation — A Dilemma With Some Local Horns."

You are to be complimented for your interest in this subject which is vital not only to the people of your area but to the economic well-being of every resident of the Bay area. Improved transportation is a subject that will require much discussion and deliberation before real improvements can be effected, and your article was a noteworthy step in the direction of providing such discussion.

Good transportation is perhaps even more essential to Contra Costa County than to other areas. I think this was indicated in the recent figures from the State Department of Employment which showed that despite a 38 per cent increase in population since 1948 to a total today of some 371,000, manufacturing employment in the county has increased by only 1.1 per cent, or 306 jobs.

It is clear then that many of the residents of Contra Costa County have their employment in other counties, but bring back the bulk of their earnings to stimulate the growth of local businesses and to pay local taxes.

The rapid transit system which we hope to propose to the voters of the District in 1960 will facilitate this interchange of people and money which is so vital to the efficient economic functioning of a metropolitan area such as the Bay area.

With rapid transit, a Contra Costa County resident will be able to accept employment wherever he choses in the Bay area and his choice will not be limited by the growing congestion-caused costs in time and money of commuting.

Contra Costa County is blessed with much vacant land. Rapid transit will make these vacant areas accessible to more and more people, just as the automobile made the central section of the county available to our expanding population in the years following World War II.

It is important that as much of this space as possible be utilized to promote the maximum economic development of the county, that it be used for homes, for business and industry—the tax producing functions that make our economy tick.

Rapid transit will provide maximum accessibility with minimum use of space. The only alternative would be to provide more and more freeways and highways for more and more automobiles at a tremendous cost in potentially tax lucrative land.

Provision of more and more facilities for the movement and parking of the private automobile will shrink the productive tax base and make more and more onerous the burden of taxpayers whose land remains on the tax rolls.

May I commend you again for your interest in this subject. The District is just beginning a year of intensive activity, the result of which will be the formulation of the plan for a rapid transit system serving all the people of the Bay area.

Only an informed public will be able to intelligently decide the fate of the bond issue which we hope to propose next year.

The public must know of the wide benefits rapid transit will bring and of the dire alternatives in cost and confusion to be faced without it.

JOHN M. PEIRCE
General Manager
SF-Bay Area Transit Dist.

Prytanean Alumnae To Present Musicale

On Valentines Day, Saturday, February 14, alumnae and active members of the Prytanean Society, the oldest women's honor society on the University of California campus, will sponsor their annual fund raising spring tea and musical program.

The new Hertz Memorial Music Hall on the University of California campus is the place selected for the musical program to commence at 2 p.m. Bay Area Prytanean alumnae and guests will hear the Northern California Honor Orchestra play musical selections it has prepared for presentation to the National Educators' Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah, in April.

Under the direction of Sidney Griller of the world famous Griller String Quartet in residence at the U.C. campus, this orchestra is comprised of northern California high school students selected for their outstanding musical abilities.

Organized last fall by Dr. George Kyme, supervisor of student music teachers at U.C., and Mr. Rollin Silfies, supervisor of instrumental music for the Oakland Public School Department, as a string clinic for music educators; this group unites exceptional students from as faw away as Sacramento and Modesto with students from the immediate Bay Area.

Several students played at the International Exposition in Brussels this summer.

Immediately following the program, tea will be served at the nearby Women's Faculty Club. This will be a rare opportunity for alumnae to visit the lovely residence of many of the U.C. faculty members.

As old as this century, the Prytanean Honor Society, whose name and lighted lamp symbol express the idea of representative government—"eternal vigilance for the good of all;" was founded in 1900 by Dr. Mary Bennett Ritter, physician and advisor to U.C. women students, as a group to improve some unsatisfactory conditions then existing at the university.

As originally established, the organization consists of junior and senior women students outstanding in leadership and service to the university. Among their achievements through the years have been the founding of a student infirmary, later to become Cowell Hospital; and the origin and development of the Departments of Physical Education for women, Decorative Art and Home Economics.

Mary Bennett Ritter Hall, a women student's cooperative residence, was established in 1937 by Prytanean alumnae and it is still their chief objective to maintain and expand this residence hall to keep up with the increasing demand for housing at the university.

Prytaneans also sponsor a scholarship fund an a loan fund to help university women in temporary financial distress.

Mrs. Bestor Robinson is president of the Prytanean Alumnae Association.

Mrs. William Sawyer Jr., general chairman of the event, is assisted by Mrs. Brutus Hamilton and Miss Ann Pitzer, tea chairmen; and Mrs. William White, program chairman. Other committee chairmen are Miss Bethany Westenberg, invitations; Mrs. Warren Deverel, decorations; Mrs. E. M. Walston and Mrs. Eric Orchison, publicity; and Miss Donalee Fey, president of the active group.

Also sharing the spotlight will be 14 members of the younger set promenading in apparel from Tots N' Teens, Walnut Creek.

Special guest star will be models' hair styles from The Leiland, Concord.

Co-stars are valuable door prizes, table favors, special event, music by Mrs. Wilfred Gillespie and fun for all in this "Mardi Gras" setting.

St. Perpetua Rites Join Aileen, John

Sacred rites at St. Perpetua Catholic Church, Lafayette, united the former Aileen McGuire of Lafayette, and John Patrick Moran of Los Angeles.

Aileen is a graduate of Dominican Convent, Stanford University, and John holds bachelor and law degrees from Stanford.

The couple will live in Visalia, where the new husband is practicing law.

THE CEREMONIES at St. Perpetua were performed by Father John Quinn, and the nuptial mass was performed by Father John Morgan.

Aileen's bridal gown was of candlelight antique silk trimmed in alencon lace. The fingertip illusion veil was attached to a wreath of orange blossoms.

She carried a bouquet of white phaelonopsis orchids.

She was attended by her sisters, Mary Ann and Cecelia. Both wore dresses of mint green taffeta, with matching Dior bows in their hair.

JOHN'S BEST man was his brother, Dr. Terrence Moran of Sherman Oaks. Ushers were a brother, Dennis Moran, R. Chandler Myers and Philip A. Homme, all of Los Angeles.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

NOW it can be told! Bing Crosby may not be aware of it, but the reason his tournament gallery was the largest ever was 'cause, it would seem, about two-thirds of OUR population was transplanted to HIS land last week-end.

Such weather, such fun and such golf! Staying at the Normandy Inn were the Stan Holmgrens, Ramsey Underwoods and Bill McGuires—the last couple adding to the festivities by celebrating their 10th anniversary.

Happily surprised they were to find their room filled with beautiful Carmel blooms.

And dining at the Beach Club were . . .

On Saturday night the six-some were among those dining and dancing at the glamorous "Beach Club" on the 17th fairway. There, too, were the Lee Emersons and Phipps Rasmussens. Following Saturday's rounds the Art Comerfords, Art Ludblads and Jim McCollums sped down to Aptos where they were house guests of Pat and Don White in their OH! so fabulous beach house. After a late Sunday brunch they all returned for Sunday's "spectacular."

Peg and Don Johnson and Mary and Ralph Gordon headquartered at the "Villa Motel." Spotted at this place and that were the Dick Betzenderfers (he's W.C. Chamber of Commerce president this year), Charles Rodiers, Ted Beams, Jim Shierrys, Jack Pingrees, Dan Carters, Joe Downs, "Hop" Hopkins, J. C. Folliards, Ben Gerwicks, Phillip Merrills and Frank Langmaides.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Perry entertained friends with a scrumptious Hawiian dinner last Friday. Adding to the tropical atmosphere were the "Mu-Mus" which the pretty ladies wore. Guests were the Messrs. and Mmes. Doug Mathey, Jack Ready and Tommy Franklin. Visiting in the Frank Fink home is Mrs. Fink's mother, Mrs. Albert Allee of Tucson, Arizona and just back from a trip to Zillah, Washington, are Barbara and Robert Kuhn. They were guests of Bob's parents there.

The Edward Lazarreschis have just returned from a "fun-derful" week at Reno where they stayed at the "Holiday Inn."

Time off for a "fun" party . . .

Last Saturday night the ever-busy Lombardy Branch of Children's Hospital took "time off" for a fun party at June and George Merriam's home in Seepy Hollow. This is a yearly MUST —with the outgoing chairman the slated hostess. Dinner, dancing and games were enjoyed but now the gals are back at their "chores" for the next project starts on February 16. A series of 10 lessons (for $10) for beginner and intermediate bridge enthusiasts will again be taught by that ever popular instructor, Mrs. Hazel Files.

Jane (Mrs. Harry) Peck is directing this event which will take place at the Orinda Community Church—so call her at CL 4-3820 if you are interested.

The Gerald Oultons gave a small dinner party recently to welcome home Dr. and Mrs. Herb Packard who had spent some snowy weeks in Idaho. Dr. Packard and Dr. Bill Harris left Saturday with others of the Bay Area Rotary for an annual jaunt to Reno.

The Junior Larks have been mighty busy with planning for their second (and last year's was GOOD!) annual luncheon-fashion show on March 29. Models will be chosen by senior Lark members, Mme. Newton Warburton, Edward Ageno, Robert Underhill and Joseph Adams—as if those four didn't have enough to do what with the "Mardi Gras" coming up.

And wait 'til you see THESE hats . . .

Hear that the hats being created for this "plush" affair are beginning to look sensational and am not surprised with a theme such as "Suppressed Desire" giving members and guests a wide-open field for fantasy as well as reality! Two-of-a-kind hats will be worn by Mrs. Paul Kapci and Mrs. Walter Gritzer whose husbands have just become partners in a new business venture.

Back to the younger Larks who will be doing some practicing over the week-end. A good excuse, you see, for a slumber party at Karen Kaser's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Gray arrived home from their trip through Mexico to discover that their son, Jack, and his one and only, Margo Watts, had been married in Reno. A reception for some 250 guests will be held early in February at the Gray's lovely Spring Court home in Orinda.

Students to Take Achievement Test

Students at Miramonte, Acalanes and Las Lomas High Schools will take Iowa Achievement Tests during the first part of February, according to Acalanes District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons.

The Iowa test, a nationally standardized examination, will be given to all district freshmen and juniors. The tests score achievements in math, natural science, English, reading and social studies background.

According to school authorities the tests are often a "good prediction of future college success. The tests enable teachers, counselors, students and parents to view an accurate profile of each student's achievement in basic areas of learning."

"In addition, Iowa test results are also used as an aid in advising students in subject areas where they are weak, as a reflection of academic growth between the freshmen and junior years of study, and as a means of evaluating the general impact of the school curriculum on students as a whole," Acalanes district counselors stated.

Lynn School Has Openings For Morning Students

The Lynn School for retarded children in Danville is badly in need of students for its morning class from 9 a.m. to 11:45 p.m. The class enrolls students from age 3 to 6.

The school is sponsored by the Council for the Retarded, East Contra Costa Co., Incorporated, for the education and training of retarded children in the Contra Costa County area.

The school is parent cooperative and tuition is kept at a minimum so that no child will be kept at home due to lack of funds.

Car pools have been formed from the Antioch, Pittsburg, Concord, Walnut Creek, and Lafayette areas. Mothers are expected to cooperate one day weekly and share in the driving if possible.

Applications for enrollment will be accepted throughout the school year. Parents of retarded children are urged to send their child to school as the training they receive can benefit them so.

Early training is also essential. Parents, or anyone who knows of a retarded child, can contact the teacher, Mrs. Winifred Johnston at the school in Danville from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Phone VE 7-6934.

The Council has facilities for training retarded children of all ages. Age 6 to 8 attend the Lynn school afternoon session. The Lynn Training Center in Walnut Creek accommodates the older children.

Volunteer workers are still needed for Wednesday and Thursday, from 9 a.m. to noon at the Lynn School in Danville. No experience is necessary. Anyone interested in helping with these youngsters please contact Mrs. Roland Cordova, AT 3-2969.

Sheltered Workshop to Make Product

After a short period of reorganization, the Sheltered Workshop of the Easter Seal Society is offering a "new vista" for the trainees — the manufacturing of a popular product.

This advancement has been brought about by the cooperation of the staff of the Easter Seal Society, the Department of Industrial Engineering of the University of California, the Elgin Pen Company of San Francisco, the Nygran Industries of Richmond, and the Standard Oil Company of California.

Through their combined efforts the Sheltered Workshop will manufacture the widely used "stick-pen," so commonly known as a type of ball point pencil.

This activity, producing a minimum of 2000 pens per day, assures the Workshop of a constant operation.

The mechanization, planned with the greatest precautionary measures, will also help to teach proper safety procedures.

Later the University of California plans to do a complete study in the Workshop, and will recommend refinements in the process which will assist the workers to develop greater skills and dexterity.

Don't cut off the engine immediately after a long drive, especially a drive through mountains, advises the National Automobile Club. Let the engine idle for a few minutes before calling it a day. Two good results are thus accomplished: the prevention of loss of water through boiling and the prevention of vapor lock in the fuel line.

Sno-Scoop

By GARY BARNETT

Judy Palmer, with Wendy Webb as her guest, took her first trip to the Clair Tappan Lodge on highway 40, a mile and a half west of Donner Summit. This particular lodge boasts its long rope tow and is owned by the Sierra Club, an international organization to preserve the beauty of nature.

Everyone in the lodge shares common chores such as sweeping, shoveling, and helping in the kitchen. After a few days the girls became experienced in creating dish-pan hands.

ALTHOUGH IT snowed most of the time, they had a swell ski trip. On Saturday they hiked to Sugar Bowl, but claimed at this time it was really too windy to enjoy the slopes. That night there was a good movie on Germany shown in the main auditorium. Sunday there was an abundance of powder, and since I confidentially know that Windy Webb hates powder skiing, she must have been real cool up here, adorning the whole area with "sitzmarks" in a systematic pattern.

The High 4-H Club, consisting of teenagers from our local area took a jaunt to Camp Sylverton in Stanislaus County. They left Las Lomas High School at 8 a.m. Saturday.

Dodge Ridge is near-by and all had a good time tobogganing and skiing. Mr. and Mrs. Jiles took an extra car along loaded down with food for the members, afraid that starvation would set in at any moment, having had previous experience.

After their arrival and a hard day of skiing they relaxed with a night of square dancing. Then on Sunday the girls planned a snowball attack on the boy's dormitory. They successfully invaded and launched their weapons; casualties were numerous.

AMONG THE happy, hungry, hilarious, half-frozen 4-H group were Jim Pachaud, Pat Ford, Loretta Ford, Mike Jiles, Larry Shannon, Mike Smith, John Cash, Joe Lawler, Tom Gritzer, Todd Gritzer, Gail Davidson, Lynn Davidson, Rosemary Smith, Sue Lawrence, Gail Nelson, Karen Kline, Pat Domingas and Rina Carnill, chaperoned by Mrs. Foard and John Carnill, the County Farm Advisor.

I hear that the Sports and Games Ski Trip to Dodge Ridge was a blast. Only $13.50 included transportation up and down, a lunch, dinner, rentals, and instructions by Hector Hancock. Miss Ruth Pierce, who at the present time is substituting as a P.E. teacher at Clayton Valley High, helped with the supervision.

DR. PETER Picard of Walnut Creek was chosen from among the many volunteers to help as an official during the North American Championships in February and the 1960 Olympics.

DID YOU KNOW that statistics show there is approximately one chance in two million feet of skiing of really hurting yourself; and chances are you'll miss that chance? Being afraid of breaking a leg is no excuse for not skiing, driving a car each day is much more dangerous.

Most accidents that do happen are caused by "Snow Bunnies." You can tell such a person as this by the way he dresses or skis. He is discourteous and can't ski worth beans.

He has no regard for others and would just as well ram into you to cushion his fall as not. He never fills a sitzmark, but leaves them open for guests to drop in, and they usually do. So remember, enjoy skiing but be courteous on the slopes.

Mats, Knights, Dons Tied, Rams Lose

Matadors Topple Knights

The Miramonte Matadors came back with a vengeance last Friday night to topple the Las Lomas Knights as they won the varsity game 36-27 after nailing down the Bee game 43-40.

Miramonte's win threw the league into a three way tie with Miramonte, Acalanes and Las Lomas, each having one loss in league standings.

THE MATADORS were in top form as they outrebounded the Knights on the boards 31-26.

The Knights, playing on the Orinda hardwood, started well enough taking an 11-6 first quarter lead only to have the Orinda quartet shift into high to take a halftime 18-15 advantage.

It was 7-7 in the third frame but the Matadors headed for home in the final canto, outscoring the visitors 11-5 to ice the game. Hustling Bill Houston lead the Matadors with his sterling around play as well as taking scoring honors with 12 points.

NEXT IN LINE were Miramonte John Coffey and Bob Gomez of Las Lomas, who hit for eight apiece.

The statistics gave the Matadors an edge in field goals 11 for 34 while the Knights had 9 for 35. In the free throw department it runs Miramonte 14 for 18 as against 9 for 12.

In the Bee game Walt Altorfer has 11 points for Miramonte to head the scoring.

Pitt Likes Pleasant Hill: 62-52

The Pinttsburg Pirates found the Pleasant Hill High court to their liking last Friday night and took to the court for a pair of league wins.

The Pittsburg varsity, hotter than a pistol in a western movie, as they rolled up a one sided 21-9 first quarter advantage and the Rams never did recover as they went down 62-52.

THE PITT FIVE were outscored by the Rams 15-12 in the second quarter and again in the fourth period 18-17 while picking up a two point margin 12-10 in the third eight minutes of play.

Bill Locatelli kept the Rams in contention with a 29 point game outburst but it couldn't offset the Pirates who had four in the double figures when C. H. Lea tanked 15, Lee Aldridge 13, while Willie Mickey and Frank Cardinelli posted 12 points.

The clubs were even steven on the free throw line, each hitting on 20 for 28. Pitt's advantage came where it counted most, collecting 21 to the Ram's 16 with Locatelli getting 13 of them.

THE PITTSBURG lightweights paced the league with an undefeated record as they upended the Ram Littlemen 43-33. The game was really iced in the first quarter when Pitt raced to a 17-6 lead.

Terry Hughes took individual scoring honors for the Rams on 14 points.

Dons Take Pair From Las Lomas

The Acalanes Dons won a big pair of games last Tuesday afternoon when they defeated Las Lomas 41-36 in the varsity go after edging the visiting Bees 39-38.

The wins put the Acalanes varsity in a tie with Miramonte for the top spot while the Don Bees went to the front of the standings.

The varsity game found Acalanes trailing 10-8 at the quarter and 19-18 in the half but they went ahead in the third quarter when they scored 11 points with six of them coming on field goals by Bill Yonge to put them ahead 29-28.

In the fourth period Acalanes hit for 12 points, their best of any quarter while holding Lomas to 8 with six of them coming on three field goals by Tom Nichols.

Acalanes hit for 16 field goals in the game to 15 for Las Lomas and had 9 free throw points to 6 for the Knights.

Nichols was the game's top scorer with 11 points but Acalanes offset it when Mel Simpson and Paul Colin each hit for 10 while Yonge was not far behind with 9.

In the Bee game it was a battle down to the wire with Acalanes ahead 20-19 at the half and holding the same on a point margin 39-38 when the final buzzer sounded.

Bob Morris of Las Lomas was top scorer with 19 points while Acalanes had Dave Stegman with 9.

Acalanes Dumps Wolves

The Acalanes Bees set the pace last Friday night when they dropped the San Ramon Bees at Danville 36-27 with John Zenotti with 16 and Bill Albert with 13 doing the damage.

The Acalanes varsity took up where the Bees left off as they ran to a one sided 48-23 win.

THE DONS scores by quarters were 9-9-17-13 while San Ramon had 3-7-2-11.

Coach Dan Glines used his bench as he played 16 men with 12 hitting the scoring column. The swing was evenly distributed for Acalanes as Bill Yonge had 8 points, Mel Simpson 8, and Don Nelson 7 and Paul Colin 6.

Gary Scott, Mike Oaks and Bryan Hansen had 4 apiece for San Ramon.

The Dons had 61 floor shots and made 21 along with 6 for 15 from the foul line.

SAN RAMON posted 6 for 43 on field goals and 11 for 21 on free throws.

The Dons controlled the boards collecting 45 to the home club's 34.

The win put the Don Varsity into a first place tie with Miramonte and Las Lomas while the Don Bees wound up in a first place tie with Piedmont.

Berkeley Bounces Walnut Creek

The Berkeley Bears eked out a 4-3 victory over rival Walnut Creek Warriors in their intercity hockey league game Sunday night at Berkeley Iceland.

Walnut Creek started fast, blanking the Bears 2-0 for the first period of play. Newly acquired Russ Tocchard and veteran center Ken Simon accounted for the two goals.

Berkeley came back fast in the second period, scoring three goals to the Warriors one.

The third period opened a new game with the tie score. Both teams fought to break the tie and finally with less than five minutes remaining to play, Berkeley Captain Bruce Knowles broke away and scored the winning goal.

The game was fast and hard as is shown by the six penalties doled out by the referee.

Walnut Creek's Warriors accounted for four penalties which went to Bonnington, Tocchard, Farley and Hart. Knowles sat out four minutes in penalties for the Bears.

Berkeley's four goals were hit by Vanderveen and Bakala with one each, Knowles scored twice. Tochard scored one and Simon scored twice for Walnut Creek.

Youth Athletic Group Elects, Plans Season

The Walnut Creek Youth Athletic Association elected officers January 20 from among the dads who have devoted three seasons to coaching and helping develop local baseball facilities.

They are as follows: President Mel Alamano, Vice President Roger Guichard, Secretary Marion Stephenson, Treasurer Milt Durfee, Sergeant-at-Arms Fran Morris.

Robert Durand represented the Walnut Creek Recreation Commission at the meeting held at the Recreation Center. Plans for the organization of the 1959 Baseball League teams were formulated. The group determined to pattern the program after the highly successful 1958 season with a few minor changes.

IT WAS DECIDED to extend the age bracket in the American League to 18 years by March 1, 1959, instead of the 17 year age limit.

Therefore, all Walnut Creek area boys from nine through 18 will have the opportunity to participate in the Baseball Program in one of the four leagues, according to age.

The Leagues are Coast, National, Western, and American, so planned to keep competition between teams of boys of similar age and size.

League play will start and finish approximately 10 days earlier than it has in past seasons.

EACH SEASON, baseball equipment and team uniforms are provided by interested sponsors.

Sponsors who have already signed up for a 1959 team are John Rogers, Arabian Colts; Louis Very, Walnut Creek Sheet Metal; P. E. Crosby, Miilu MacPherson; and Col. William Winslow, Air Force Jets.

Seventh Court Sought Here

Creation of a seventh department of the Contra Costa County Superior Court may be asked from the State Legislature by the County Board of Supervisors.

David J. Levy, deputy district attorney and vice president of the County Bar Association requested action by the board saying, "two more superior judges would be desirable but one is essential."

He said that the sixth court created by the 1957 legislature has barely kept pace with the increase in number of suits filed. In 1956 the five courts handled 1295 cases each. In 1958, six courts each handled 1236 cases, only a slight improvement in case load, Levy pointed out.

A total of 943 more cases were filed in 1958 than in 1956, he said, adding that 1957 state legislation requiring pretrial conference for the majority of civil cases, has forced one of the six judges to almost full time duty on this count.

Levy said that while there was a six month delay after cases were ready for trial two years ago, today cases must be delayed for 12 months after attorneys and clients are ready for trial.

County Administrator J. P. McBrien is making a statistical survey to present data to the supervisors on where the proposed new court would be housed.

HORSEPOWER

In the past five years, reports the National Automobile Club, the average horsepower of new passenger cars has jumped 80 per cent: from 140 to 250.

Boy Scout Drive Is Tomorrow

An "Early Bird" breakfast will serve as the kick-off for participating workers in the sustaining membership drive to be conducted by the Boy Scouts of America on January 31.

United Crusade funds contributed 50 per cent of the cost of administering and making available the programs of the Explorer Posts, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts and the other 50 per cent comes from this membership drive.

Arrangements for the breakfast which will be held at 7:45 a.m. at the cafeteria at Diablo Valley College have been made by the Louis Stores. Hal Holley is district supervisor.

Serving will be Explorer Post 389, Ed Pedro, leader and Explorer Post 333, Dave Dunham, leader.

On the clean-up detail are Explorer Posts 264, Jack Miller; 288, Henry Harrison; 305, Jack McLean; and 380 John McCullough.

Table decorations will be provided by Cub Pack 228, supervised by chief den mother, Mrs. Louis Matticola.

Presentation of the colors will be by Troop 248, Al Maas, scoutmaster and entertainment by Cub Pack 215, Hiram Wolfe, cubmaster. General chairman for the breakfast is Al Maffei, assisted by Ray Chapot.

Chairmen for the general solicitations in Pleasant Hill are Alan Goodban and Thomas Butterfield; in Martinez, Robert McAulay. The drive will continue on one day only.

Farm Bureau Women To Hold Luncheon

Contra Costa Farm Bureau Women's county committee and unit leaders will meet February 6, 10 a.m., at Farm Bureau Hall, 5554 Clayton Road, Concord, with Mrs. Leslie Kerns of Danville, county chairman, presiding.

Alhambra Valley Farm Bureau Women with Mrs. J. H. Dillard of Martinez, chairman, will be hostesses for the day and will serve luncheon.

Martini's 'Special' At Nicks

By THE DINER

NICK'S PLACE at 414 Escobar Street in Martinez is the fine Italian dinner house and popular night spot where Contra Costans can get that "mushroom martini" everyone has been hearing about.

NICK AND TINA PAGNINI not only fix a good "mushroom martini," but also pickle and sell mushrooms for wide distribution under a brand name. The sideline doesn't keep the Pagninis from the business of catering to their many dinner patrons from the Lafayette and Walnut Creek areas.

BANQUETS also keep the couple busy. Recent telephone company employees celebration of inaugural of the dial system in Martinez and the annual dinner installation of officers of the Martinez Boys club were held at Nick's Place.

DINERS accustomed to phoning for reservations at Paul's of Martinez, another fine Italian dinner house, are reminded that the new dial exchange number is ACademy 8-3595.

PAUL'S was the setting last Saturday evening for the annual pin award dinner for Martinez city employees. State Appellate Justice A. F. Bray, a former city attorney served as master of ceremonies. Some 135 persons attended. Some 140 employees of the Fluor corporation, a nationwide construction and maintenance firm, attended a dinner meeting the previous evening.

THE EL RANCHO GRANDE and Louie Olivera have come up with several special Mexican dinner treats in Walnut Creek. Louie's "Mole with Chicken" is a delicious combination of sweet chocolate, chili powder, almonds and a thick sauce. "Cornetas" is another enchilada taco with a new "avocado filling" treat. "Chili Rellenos," still another special, is described as prepared with green chili and filled with Jack cheese, all rolled in egg batter.

PAN MEXICANO, a sweet bread, and a spicy, Mexican egg chocolate really whet the appetite at the El Rancho Grande, according to Olivera.

THE OLIVERAS returned recently from Mexico with many beautiful ornamental pieces. Among them are the large, lacquered plates which serve as wall decorations at the restaurant. The plates are beautifully and artistically handpainted by Mexican youths.

County Gets $139,428.07 For Gas Tax

December apportionments of highway users taxes totaled $26,973,651, State Controller Alan Cranston reported yesterday.

Of that total, $17,701,311 went to the State Highway Fund for expenditures on highways, $2,595,717 to the State Highway Fund for cities, and $6,676,623 to the counties.

This county's share of the total amounted to $139,428.07, Cranston said.

The December apportionments showed a decrease of $2,625,677 or 8.87 per cent from the November figures and an increase of $2,770,466 or 11.45 per cent over the distribution for December of 1957.

The overall total was comprised of $24,918,881 from the net gasoline tax, $1,185,904 from the use (diesel) fuel tax, $868,551 by transfer from the Motor Vehicle Transportation Tax Fund, and $315 from miscellaneous sources.

Gross gasoline taxes for the month came to $26,422,714. From this amount was deducted $1,474,666 for refund to non-highway users and $29,167 for apportionment of unrefunded tax on aviation gasoline. Refunds dropped by $402,505 or 21.44 per cent from the preceding month.

The figures, representing November collections, were compiled under the direction of Cranston's predecessor as controller, Robert C. Kirkwood.

Thelma Braly is Real Estate '58 'Salesman of the Year'

Mrs. Thelma Braly, former registered nurse, was named the 1958 "Salesman of the Year" by the Contra Costa Real Estate Board Monday during a breakfast meeting at the El Nido.

Board President Bill Hayward made the presentation. Mrs. Braly said that it was the efforts of all the Women's Division members that should be credited.

The award is not made for selling more real estate than other salesmen, but for "service to the board and membership."

EARLIER winners of the award are Frank Curtis of Orinda, 1956, and Ray McCoy, 1957.

Mrs. Braly is associated with Mason-McDuffie Company of Orinda. She has been in real estate sales in this area for three years and before coming here sold real estate in San Francisco.

She was born in Uniontown, Pennsylvania, and became a registered nurse after training at Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia. She served as a nurse in New York.

She is the wife of William Braly Jr. They have three children, Pamela, 15; Frank, 13, and Barbara, 9.

MRS. BRALY was president of the Women's Division last year and served on the division board of directors. The division is in charge of arranging the Contra Costa Real Estate Board's social events and programs.

She has also taken several special real estate courses.

The Salesman of the Year committee included Hayward, chairman; Charles Greer, Lewis Reark and Frank Curtis.

It was also announced this week that Tony Eberle has been elected chairman of the Lafayette Division of the board.

HE WILL SUCCEED Charles Greer, who was the first chairman of the new division.

Vice chairman and secretary is M. H. Brinker.

Speaker at the breakfast meeting Monday was Victor Sauer, county public works director. He discussed the Tudor report on highway development.

The Women's Division held a luncheon on Wednesday. Speaker was Norman Halverson of Martinez. His subject was "Minor Subdivision Ordinances for Contra Costa County."

Lenora Tiedman is Women's Division president.

ONE OF THE MOST moving events depicted in Cecil B DeMille's production "The Ten Commandments," opening Friday, January 30, at the Park Theater in Lafayette, is the Lord's Passover. In the reverent scene above, Moses, portrayed by Charlton Heston, and followers John Derek, Olive Deering, John Caradine and Julia Faye partake of their last meal in bondage before the Exodus.

Young Seeks Peddlers' Curb Ordinance

Sheriff Walter F. Young has asked the Board of Supervisors to recommend that the District Attorney prepare an Ordinance for their approval for the registering of all individuals seeking a Peddler's license.

Pointing out that Supervisor James Kenny has stated that the Richmond Police Department has achieved marked success in controlling complaints through prescreening of applicants — Sheriff Young declared "that only through county wide cooperation of all law enforcement agencies will we insure protection of housewives and minor children against the possibility of offensive conduct by itinerant individuals operating under the guise of peddlers."

Stating that the time has come for an all-out campaign for citizen protection, Sheriff Young concluded "that he is confident that the Board concurs fully in the need for such control and will pass an ordinance upon submission."

Eugene Istomin, internationally famous concert pianist, will appear at Las Lomas High School auditorium tomorrow at 8 p.m.

His performance will be given under the auspices of the Acalanes Community Concert Association.

Shortly after his appearance here he will embark on his third globe-circling tour.

Church Group Conference

Members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in this area heard a high-ranking official from Salt Lake City, Utah, during a conference of the Walnut Creek Stake, last Saturday and Sunday in Oakland, California.

The visitor was Elder Mark E. Petersen, a member of the Council of Twelve Apostles.

The public attended general sessions Sunday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., said Stake President Norman B. Creer, 1176 Almendra Court, Concord.

Elder Petersen is widely known as an eloquent and popular speaker. In addition to his Church assignment, he is president of the Deseret News, the Church's Salt Lake City daily newspaper.

Cancer Drive Funds Go For New Research

In a mid-year report to members of the American Cancer Society's Contra Costa County Branch, Dr. Frederick A. Pellegrin, branch president, said that the society already has invested $742,522 in research projects at California institutions with more than half of its fiscal year to go.

Dr. Pellegrin said research appropriations are made quarterly by the national office of the society and supplemented during the year by grants from its California Division.

The money is used to finance a variety of projects ranging from fundamental cell research to investigation of the role of viruses as a possible cause of cancer, Dr. Pellegrin said.

Doris Ann Northway Plans To Wed William Danforth

Mr. and Mrs. Francis F. Northway held an open house recently for family members and close friends at their home at 25 Gregory Lane, Pleasant Hill, to announce the engagement of their daughter, Doris Ann, to William Warren Danforth, a cadet at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

Guests first learned of the betrothal news when offered fortune cookies containing the names of the affianced couple. A gold and white color scheme was effectively carried out featuring a small white Christmas tree with gold ornaments centering the buffet table and white lighted tapers at either side.

The bride-elect was graduated from Pleasant Hill High School with the class of 1956. She is a past honored queen of Walnut Creek Bethel 238 International Order of Job's Daughters.

Doris is presently employed by the Pleasant Hill Branch of Bank of America. She has one brother, Chester, an eighth grade student at Pleasant Hill Intermediate School.

The future benedict, who was home for the holidays and the engagement announcement, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Danforth of 3334 North Lucille Lane, Lafayette. He was graduated from Acalanes High School and attended the University of California before his appointment to West Point.

William is the brother of Lois Danforth, who attends Pacific Union College near St. Helena, and of John Danforth

'Aid' Classes are Popular; Red Cross Is Sponsoring

Mrs. Frances Gray, chairman of First Aid for the Greater Mt. Diablo Chapter of the Red Cross said this week, "First Aid classes are springing up so fast that the squares on our big calendar seem to fill up while we go to answer the phone."

A special 10-hour course is being given for the Police Department of Walnut Creek. It began January 20 at the Red Cross Chapter House, Walnut Creek. This class is already filled.

The Lafayette Fire Department also has a class scheduled. William Koch is the instructor. The class will be held in the Lafayette Fire House. This class also has reached its quota.

THE ORINDA Fire Department is starting a group under the Koch's direction at the Orinda Fire House.

The Department of Public Works of the City of Walnut Creek will start a class on February 10.

Arthur Sillers will conduct this class from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Tuesdays for five weeks. It too is filled.

Two Standard First Aid Classes have been inaugurated for the general public. These are 10-hour courses.

A MORNING class began on Tuesday and will be conducted from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., Tuesdays and Thursdays, at the Red Cross Chapter House, 1395 Civic Drive, Walnut Creek, under the direction of Frank Williams.

An evening class began on Wednesday, and will convene from 8 to 10 p.m., Monday and Wednesday evenings at the Chapter House.

Gunther Steinberg will be the instructor.

There was a meeting of the First Aid Instructors on Monday at the Red Cross Chapter House.

MRS. GEORGE Hearne has joined the Red Cross First Aid Committee. She has been active on other Red Cross Committees.

Mrs. Joseph Bronson said, "Girls who love to dance and would like to make others happy, please call the Red Cross as we desperately need hostesses for Oak Knoll Hospital. The girls go down once a week on Tuesday evening, transportation furnished from the Chapter House."

For interviews, persons may call Mrs. Joseph Bronson, or the Chapter House.

Exciting Election Held At Diablo Valley College

A recent election held at Diablo Valley College by the Associated Students put 17 new students in council positions for the spring semester.

The election drew some 1200 student voters to the polls.

In the race for president was the incumbent vice president, Hari Naidu, San Ramon, a foreign exchange student, and Al Locatelli, Pleasant Hill.

Locatelli defeated Naidu in a hotly contested runoff which drew the largest number of voters for a run-off election in he history of the school.

THERE WERE three other offices included in the run-off—recording secretary, inter-club council commissioner and the commissioner of finance.

Bay Area Transit District To Begin Survey Here

Interviewers will begin contacting Bay Area residents at their homes early in February to ask questions concerning the five-county Bay Area Rapid Transit District and its program, General Manager John M. Peirce said.

Peirce said some 1,750 residents will be interviewed in Contra Costa, Alameda, Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo Counties in the scientific fact-finding survey which will be conducted by the opinion research firm of Facts Consolidated.

"The primary purpose of this survey," Peirce explained, "will be to enable a large segment of the public to become partners with the district in planning a modern and efficient system of mass rapid transit for the Bay Area.

"Specifically, the survey will help us determine the present extent of knowledge concerning the district and its plans, and will develop, from a significant cross-section of the public, attitudes toward alternate approaches to certain financial and engineering problems which the district must resolve.

"The district is a public agency with a mandate from the State Legislature to plan, build and operate a rapid transit system dedicated to solving the Bay Area's most pressing public problem—congestion. The findings of this survey can be most useful in helping the district to carry out its mandate."
